- B. This manual contains policies set forth by the Employer that are applicable to all employees unless otherwise noted. However, this manual is not to be construed as an employment contract. Any provision of a collective bargaining agreement in conflict with any policy herein shall supersede said policy in its application to bargaining unit employees.
- C. All personnel charged with the responsibility of administering policy must be thoroughly knowledgeable of the contents of this manual. It is important these policies be administered in a systematic, fair, and impartial manner. Undoubtedly, there will be situations which will require administrative interpretation of the policies set forth in this manual. Every effort must be made to ensure that such decisions are made objectively, with the general intent of the policy in mind.
- D. The Employer reserves the right to develop new policies, revise or augment existing policies, delete existing policies, or make any other modification deemed appropriate. The Employer will normally try to give employees advance notification before a policy is revised, implemented, deleted, etc. However, the Employer reserves the right to make such changes without advanced notification if such is deemed appropriate.
- E. It is important that all manuals be kept up to date. All such changes (additions, deletions, revisions, etc.) must be dated, issued to all manual holders, and communicated to all affected employees.
- F. This policy manual is a guide to be utilized by management to ensure uniformity and non-discriminatory application of the conditions of employment. In the event there is a conflict between the matters expressed in this manual and any other applicable laws or documents, the applicable law or full text of the written document will prevail.
- G. If any article or section of this manual or any amendments thereto shall be held invalid by operation of law or by a tribunal of competent jurisdiction, or compliance with or enforcement of any articles or sections of this manual shall be restrained by such tribunal, the remainder of this manual and any amendments thereto shall not be affected and shall remain in full force and effect.

Appointment Section 3

- 3.1 Classified and Unclassified Employment
- 3.2 Seniority
- 3.3 Medical Examination
- 3.4 Personnel Files and Recordkeeping

Classified and Unclassified Employment 3.1

- A. All employees of the Employer are presumed to be classified civil servants unless the position an employee occupies has been exempted from the classified service by a lawful request of the Employer, or by operation of law. Most classified employees may only be disciplined for cause and by following the procedures set forth in Chapter 124 of the Ohio Revised Code. Exceptions include probationary employees, who may be removed or reduced during the probationary period due to unsatisfactory work performance (see Section 4.1, Probationary Period). Classified status restricts an employee's ability to participate in partisan politics (see Section 7.15, Political Activity).

Definition: Classified Employee: An employee, who after serving a probationary period can only be demoted, suspended, or removed from public service for cause in accordance with ORC 124.34.

Summary: The majority of positions in Belmont County are classified. A classified employee is subject to examination and has employment protection under the terms of Ohio civil service laws.

- B. Some employees of the Employer serve in the unclassified civil service, or occupy positions which have been exempted from the classified service. Such employees serve at the pleasure of the Employer. Unclassified employees are not prohibited by law from engaging in partisan political activity on their own time and away from areas in public buildings where official business is transacted or conducted (see Section 7.15, Political Activity).

Definition: Unclassified Employee: An employee which is exempt from all examinations and is provided no tenure under the law. Appointment to a position in the unclassified service may be made at the discretion of the appointing authority and the incumbent may be removed, suspended or reduced from the position at the pleasure of the appointing authority.

Summary: An unclassified employee is not subject to examination, serves at the pleasure of their appointing authority and does not have lay-off and other job security protections of Ohio Civil Service laws.

Original Adoption Date: 3/5/2008 Revision Date: 5/27/2020

Seniority 3.2

- A. Seniority is defined for purposes not to include layoff/recall, vacation accumulation, and retirement benefits, as the uninterrupted length of continuous service with the County. Termination of employment lasting less than thirty (30) days does not constitute a break in continuous service. An authorized leave of absence also does not constitute a break in continuous service and seniority time continues to accumulate during the term of the leave, provided that the employee complies with the rules and regulations governing their leave of absence.
- B. Seniority rights for bargaining unit members are governed by the appropriate collective bargaining agreement.
- C. For purposes of vacation service credit, credit is calculated according to the number of years of service with the County, the State of Ohio, or any Ohio political subdivision. The service need not be continuous; however, completion of a total of one (1) year of service (as defined in the Ohio Revised Code) is required before eligibility for any vacation is established (see Section 6.2). Service time may be transferred from agency to agency without loss of seniority provided there is no break in service of more than thirty (30) days.

An employee who has retired in accordance with the provisions of a retirement plan offered by the state, and who is subsequently hired by Belmont County, shall not have any prior service counted for the purpose of computing vacation leave.

- D. Seniority for the purposes of determining retirement benefits is defined by the provisions of the Ohio Public Employees Retirement System or other retirement system in which the employee participates. For all other purposes, other than those specified above, seniority shall be defined as set forth in the provisions of the Ohio Revised Code.

Original Adoption Date: 3/5/2008 Revision Date: 5/27/2020

Medical Examination 3.3

- A. The County may require an employee to take an examination, conducted by a licensed medical practitioner, to determine the employee's physical or mental capacity to perform the essential functions of the job, with or without reasonable accommodation.
- B. The Employer will select the physician to administer the examination. The cost of any such physical examinations will be paid by the County. If the employee disagrees with the County's licensed medical practitioner's determination, he may request to be examined by a second licensed medical practitioner of their choice at their own expense. If the reports of the two practitioners conflict, a third opinion shall be rendered by a neutral party chosen by the County and paid for by the County. The third opinion shall be controlling.
- C. Employees may be required to submit to a scheduled medical exam during the period of employment with the Employer to determine the employee's physical and mental capacity to perform the essential functions of the job with or without reasonable accommodation. Such an examination is intended to ensure that the incumbent continues to be physically and mentally able to perform the essential functions of the position.
- D. If an employee, after examination, is found to be unable to perform the essential functions of the position with or without reasonable accommodation, the employee may request use of accumulated, unused, paid and unpaid leave benefits, if applicable.

If a classified employee remains unable to perform the essential functions of the position after exhausting available leaves, they may request a voluntary disability separation. If, after exhausting available leave, an employee refuses to request a voluntary disability separation, an Appointing Authority may place the employee on an involuntary disability separation if the Appointing Authority has substantial credible medical evidence to indicate that the employee remains disabled and incapable of performing the essential job duties. Such involuntary disability separation may be done in accordance with Ohio Administrative Code (O.A.C.) Chapter 123:1-30.

- E. An employee's refusal to submit to an examination, to release the findings of an examination, or to otherwise cooperate in the examination process will be considered insubordination.

Original Adoption Date: 3/5/2008 Revision Date: 5/27/2020

Pursuant to applicable law, medical records are not public records and are maintained in a separate file Personnel files shall include individual employment data, payroll information, schedules, records of additions or deductions, application forms, and records pertaining to hiring, promotion, demotion, transfer, layoff and termination. Each appointing authority is responsible for maintaining records to reflect the disposition of all job applicants.
- B. Employees shall have the right of reasonable inspection of their official personnel file. Such inspection shall occur during non-work time and the employee must provide at least one (1) day advance written request to their department head. No personnel records shall be removed from the official records unless in accordance with state or federal law or in accordance with the County's retention of records policy.
- C. When a public records request is made for an employee's records, the County will endeavor to inform the employee of the request in advance of the release of records. The County will redact personal information, and other non- public information, from the files before release. Notifying the employee of the release may not result in an unreasonable delay in releasing the records pursuant to an appropriate request. Employees are responsible for taking legal action in the event they wish to prohibit release of the requested documents to the requesting individual or entity.
- D. Employees must timely advise the County of any change in name, address, marital status, telephone number, number of tax exemptions, citizenship, association with any government military service organization, social security number, the name and phone number of a person to contact in case of an emergency, loss of licensure or insurability, if applicable, and, any other requested information.

- B. Probationary periods for bargaining unit employees are governed by the collective bargaining agreement.
- C. Supervisors shall use the probationary period to closely observe and evaluate the employee's performance and aptitude for the job. Likewise, the employee is encouraged to bring problems to the supervisor to enhance their performance. Supervisors have a responsibility to only recommend retention of those employees who meet acceptable work standards during the probationary period.
- D. An employee may be separated at any time during the probationary period for unsatisfactory service. Employees serving promotional or transfer probationary periods may be reduced to the classification and salary held prior to the promotion upon failure of the promotional or transfer probationary period. An employee who is removed during the probationary period does not have the right to appeal to the State Personnel Board of Review.
- E. The action of reduction for failure to complete a promotional or transfer probationary period shall not be considered a disciplinary action, and shall not serve to eliminate the employee for consideration for advancement to other positions.
- F. The probationary period for full-time employees and part-time employees who work a portion of each normal working day shall be based on calendar days from the date of original appointment. Time on leave of absence or other non-paid leaves shall not be counted toward the completion of the probationary periods.

Original Adoption Date: 3/5/2008 Revision Date: 5/27/2020

Performance Evaluations 4.2

The work performance of employees may be evaluated. If evaluations are conducted they will be in accordance with established procedures. Special evaluations may be made if authorized by the Employer or designee. If conducted, probationary employees may be evaluated at the mid-point of their probationary periods, and again immediately prior to the completion of probation.

Standard written evaluation forms shall be utilized for all employees within their respective job classifications. Evaluations, if conducted, will be based upon defined and specific criteria and will generally be reviewed and signed by the employee's direct supervisor, and those superiors in the direct chain-of-command.

Employees may offer a written response to their performance evaluation. Such response, if given, will be maintained with the evaluation.

Compensatory Time 5.1

A. Compensatory Time – Non-Exempt Employees Only

Non-exempt employees: At the discretion of the Appointing Authority, certain non-exempt employees may be permitted to take compensatory time-off in lieu of overtime payment. Compensatory time, like overtime, shall accrue at a rate of at one and one-half (1 ½) times the hours actually worked and, for non-safety forces, applies only to hours actually worked in excess of forty (40) in any one work week. Compensatory time will be used on a first-in, first-out basis.

Employees may not exceed the maximum accrual cap of eighty (80) hours.

The appointing authority may, at its sole discretion, require an employee to use their compensatory time. Additionally, the Appointing Authority may choose to pay out an employee's compensatory time. If an employee's compensatory time is paid out, the employee shall receive payment at the employee's regular rate of pay at the time of payment.

B. Earned Time Off – Overtime Exempt Employees

Employees who are exempt from the overtime provisions of the FLSA are not eligible for overtime payment. The appropriate appointing authority shall determine if an employee is exempt from overtime requirements for purposes of the FLSA. Such exemptions may include employees whose job duties are executive, administrative or professional in nature. At the discretion of the appointing authority, exempt employees may be required to keep track of, and report, their hours without destroying their exempt status.

However, if approved by the appointing authority, a bona fide executive, administrative or professional employee may receive earned time off. Earned time off may not be given on a time and one half basis, but may be given as an hour for hour trade or as a lump sum “bonus” for hours worked on a particular project. Earned time off shall not be paid out and shall either be used or lost.

The adoption of a compensatory time policy is at the discretion of the Appointing Authority.

The transitional work program is designed to offer a progressive work strategy and shall not exceed ninety (90) calendar days in duration. The appointing authority and/or elected official must approve of the transitional work. Interested employees may seek additional information on the transitional work program from Human Resources. Eligibility and availability of the transitional work program will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Employees will request the government rate and obtain a sales tax exemption certification from the County prior to payment of the lodging.
- F. Phone Calls: Phone calls necessary for official County business are reimbursable.
- G. Parking and Tolls: Expenses for parking, highway, bridge, and tunnel tolls are reimbursable. Parking expenses incurred within and outside Belmont County are reimbursable providing the employee is on official County business.

3. Vacation leave is earned based on hours worked. Vacation leave is earned while on paid leave, but additional vacation leave is not accrued through the working of overtime.

4. Vacation leave shall be taken upon approval of the appointing authority.

Vacation leave shall only be accumulated while an employee is in active pay status. Full-time employees who are in active pay status for less than their number of regularly scheduled hours in any pay period will have their vacation accrual prorated for the pay period. Vacation will not accrue while an employee is on a period of unpaid leave.

- B. No employee will be entitled to vacation leave under any circumstances until they have completed six (6) months of employment with the County.

- C. Vacations are scheduled in accordance with work load requirements of the Employer. For this reason, it is important that vacation requests be made as far in advance as possible. The Employer reserves the right to approve or deny vacation requests.

Vacation Preference and Procedure for Application

1. All vacation dates are subject to the approval of the Appointing Authority or their designee.
 2. It is recognized that certain types of vacation can be planned as much as eight (8) months in advance and others not until possibly one (1) month in advance. All employees are urged to request vacation as much in advance of the desired period as possible. Certain functions require one (1) or more persons on the job for proper operation and employees are expected to bear this in mind in correlating vacations.
 3. The County may revoke vacation leave that has been approved if required for operational purposes.
- D. Vacation leave is to be taken with the twelve (12) months following the employee's anniversary date. The Employer may authorize vacation carry over from year to year; however, vacation leave shall not be carried over for more than three (3) years.
- E. An employee is entitled to compensation, at their current rate of pay, for the prorated portion of any earned but unused vacation leave for the current year to their credit, at the time of separation, transfer to another appointing authority, or retirement. The employee shall be compensated for any unused vacation leave accrued to their credit, with the permission of the Employer for up to three (3) years immediately preceding the last anniversary date of employment.

Original Adoption Date: 3/5/2008 Revision Date: 5/27/2020

Sick Leave 6.3

- A. Sick leave is a benefit and the usage of sick leave is not an entitlement. Sick leave will be provided in accordance with R.C. 124.38 and 124.39. Sick leave may be requested for the following reasons:
1. Illness or injury of the employee or a member of their immediate family (in case of a member of the immediate family not living in the same household, the appointing authority may credit sick leave when it is justified, and such cases may be investigated).

2. Medical, dental, or optical examinations or treatment of the employee or a member of their immediate family.
3. If a member of the immediate family is afflicted with a contagious disease or requires the care and attendance of the employee, or when, through exposure to a contagious disease, the presence of the employee at their job would jeopardize the health of others.
4. Pregnancy and/or childbirth, and other conditions related thereto, including leave where the employee's presence is reasonably necessary for the health and welfare of the employee or affected immediate family member.

For purposes of this policy, the "immediate family" is defined as only: spouse, parents, children, foster child(ren), grandparents, siblings, grandchildren, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, daughter-in-law, son-in-law, mother-in-law, father-in-law, step-parents, step-children, step-siblings, legal guardian or other person who stands in the place of a parent.

Elective cosmetic surgeries that are not medically necessary do not constitute an appropriate usage of sick leave. Other appropriate leaves of absence, such as vacation, may be requested for such purposes.

- B. An employee requesting sick leave shall inform their immediate supervisor or other designated person of the fact and the reason within one-half (½) hour after their scheduled starting time. Employees who work in a twenty-four (24) hour per day, seven (7) day per week program (e.g., 9-1-1, Sheriff) must provide a one (1) hour prior to their scheduled starting time notification. Failure to properly notify the designated person on the first day of illness may result in denial of sick leave for the period of absence. Subsequent notification beyond the first day of absence will be governed by the nature of the circumstances and the requirements established by the employee's appointing authority. Failure to do so may result in denial of sick leave for the period of absence. In the case of a condition exceeding three (3) consecutive calendar days, a physician's statement specifying the employee's inability to report to work and the probable date of recovery will be required. The employee will submit to such medical examination, nursing visit, or other inquiry which the Employer deems necessary.
- C. For each completed eighty (80) hours (including overtime) compensated, an employee earns 4.6 hours of sick leave (70 hours earns 4.0 hours of sick leave). Active pay status is defined as hours during which an employee is eligible to receive pay, such as hours worked, hours on vacation, hours on holiday leave, hours on compensatory time, and hours of paid sick leave. Other than full-time employees will be credited with sick leave on a basis proportionate to the hours paid each pay period.
- D. Sick leave shall be charged in minimum amounts of one-half (½) hour. Employees absent on sick leave shall be paid at the same basic hourly, daily, or biweekly rate as when they are working. The amount of sick leave time any one (1) employee may accrue is unlimited.
- E. When an employee returns to work following an absence, such employee must first report to their supervisor or other designated person. Each employee returning to work must complete a Request for Leave Form to explain the reason for their absence. Any additional written documents which substantiate the employee's reason for absence should also be submitted at this time. This information will be reviewed by the Employer or their designee to determine if the absence will be approved.

- F. Physician Statement. If medical attention is required, the employee will be required to furnish a statement from a licensed practitioner notifying the Employer that the employee was unable to perform their duties. Where sick leave is requested to care for a member of the immediate family, the Employer may require a licensed practitioner's certificate to the effect that the presence of the employee is necessary to care for the ill person, or in the case of childbirth and other conditions relating thereto, during the postnatal period.
- G. Physician Examination. Should conditions warrant it, the Employer may require an employee to take an examination, conducted by a licensed practitioner, to determine the employee's physical and/or mental capability to perform the duties of the employee's position. If found not qualified, the employee may be placed, by the Employer, on an involuntary disability separation. The cost of such examination will be paid by the Employer.
- H. Expiration of Sick Leave. If illness or disability continues beyond the time covered by accumulated sick leave, the employee may utilize any accrued but unused vacation leave they have to their credit. An employee who has exhausted all sick leave and vacation leave credits may, if appropriate, request a disability leave of absence without pay for a period not to exceed six (6) months, or a voluntary disability separation if the illness or disability is expected to exceed six (6) months. The use of other leaves is at the discretion of the County.
- I. Abuse of Sick Leave. Employees intentionally failing to comply with sick leave rules and regulations shall not be paid. Employees who demonstrate a pattern of sick leave abuse may be disciplined. Application for sick leave with intent to defraud will result in discipline up to and possibly including termination, and will also require a refund of salary or wage paid. Altering a physician's certificate or falsification of a written, signed statement shall be grounds for discharge. The County reserves the right to investigate allegations of sick leave abuse. The County reserves the right to question employees regarding their sick leave usage. Whenever an employee is on sick leave, they must be at home during scheduled work hours, obtaining treatment or receiving treatment, absent prior approval.
- J. Employees who transfer between County departments or agencies, or from another public agency, or who are reappointed or reinstated, will be credited with the unused balance of their accumulated sick leave credit, provided the time between separation, reappointment or transfer does not exceed ten (10) years and provided the employee has not cashed in any portion of that balance under ORC 124.39. The words "public agency" as used above means those entities required to provide sick leave under ORC 124.38 and 124.382, including the state, counties, municipalities, boards of education, civil service townships, etc., within the state. Villages, private industry councils, libraries organized as non-profit corporations and other entities not required to provide sick leave under ORC 124.38 or 124.382 are not "public agencies." Notwithstanding the above, or Section 6.4 - Sick Leave Conversion, if any "person removed for conviction of a felony" within the meaning of R.C. 124.34 is "subsequently re-employed" by the County, such person is only qualified to accrue sick leave as if they were a new employee receiving no credit for prior service.
- K. Sick leave for bargaining unit employees is governed by the terms of the applicable collective bargaining agreement.

- B. Such payment shall be based on the employee's hourly rate of pay at the time of retirement.
- C. Such payment shall be made only once and shall eliminate all sick leave credit accrued by the employee.
- D. Eligible County employees retiring from active service shall request such payment in writing, in order to initiate the payment process.

allowances equals or exceeds the employee's regular gross monthly wage or salary normally paid by the Employer, the employee is not entitled to any additional compensation from the Employer after being compensated for the initial one hundred seventy-six (176) hours per calendar year. This payment will continue until the order or act is withdrawn for the employee.

- D. Request for Leave — Employees are required to submit to the Employer a copy of the published orders authorizing the military duty or a written statement from the appropriate military commander authorizing such duty. Employees requesting such leave will also be required to complete and submit a request for leave form.

Procedure

- A. Employees are required to submit to their department head a copy of their military orders and a completed Request for Leave Form outlining the anticipated duration of the military leave.

For military leave up to twenty-two (22) days or one hundred seventy-six (176) hours in a calendar year, employees shall continue to be entitled to health insurance benefits as if they are working. These benefits shall continue beyond this period if the employee is on military leave and elects to utilize paid leave. Employees who exceed the twenty-two (22) days or one hundred seventy-six (176) hours and do not elect to utilize paid leave are not entitled to the health insurance benefits on the same basis as if they are working. In these circumstances, employees will be provided notice of their rights to continue this coverage at their cost in accordance with applicable law.

Leave of Absence without Pay 6.8

- A. Upon the advanced written request of a permanent employee, the Employer may grant the employee a leave of absence without pay. The maximum duration of a leave of absence without pay for personal reasons of the employee shall not exceed six (6) months. The maximum duration of a leave of absence without pay for purposes of education, training, or specialized experience which would benefit County service, or for other related reasons shall not exceed two (2) years. The authorization of a leave of absence without pay is solely a matter of administrative discretion, and each request will be decided by the Employer based upon its own merits. Whenever possible, any request for a leave of absence without pay must be made at least sixty (60) days prior to the commencement of the desired leave.
- B. Upon returning from a leave of absence, the employee is to be placed in their original position, or another position at a similar level of responsibility should the original position be abolished. When an employee fails to return to work upon the expiration of an authorized leave of absence without pay, that employee may be removed for neglect of duty.

- C. Because they are not in an active pay status, employees who are granted an authorized leave of absence without pay do not earn sick or vacation leave credit. Additionally, they do not qualify for other benefits such as paid holidays, paid health care coverage, etc. Time spent on the approved leaves of absences is to be counted when determining length of service for purposes where tenure is a factor provided the employee follows all procedures.
- D. An employee who has received an authorized leave of absence without pay may be eligible for continuation coverage as required by federal law and as outlined in the Plan policy. Such continued coverage would be totally at the employee's expense and payment would be submitted to the County in accordance with the information the employee would receive on their COBRA rights.
- E. If it is determined that an employee is abusing the leave of absence and not actually using the leave for the purpose specified, the Employer may cancel the leave and provide the employee with a written notice directing the employee to report for work.
- F. All leaves shall be for a continuous period of time (e.g., weeks, months). No leave shall be granted for an intermittent period in order for an employee to remain on payroll for the purpose of the continuation of health care or other benefits provided to employees in an active pay status.
- G. Leave of absence without pay for bargaining unit employees is governed by the applicable collective bargaining agreement.

Disability Leave and Separation 6.9

This section outlines the conditions under which disability leave and separation without pay may be granted, and procedures for administering its use.

A. Voluntary Reduction

When an employee becomes physically unable to perform the essential functions of their position, but is still able to perform the essential functions of a vacant, lower level position, they may voluntarily request reduction to the lower level position. An employee shall submit a request in writing to the Employer, stating the reason for the request. Such request must also be accompanied by a physician's statement. The approval of such requests shall be left to the discretion of the Employer and shall be based upon operational needs and requirements.

B. Voluntary Disability Separation

- 1. An employee who is unable to perform the essential job duties of their position due to a disabling illness, injury, or condition may request a voluntary disability separation. A voluntary disability separation occurs when the employee does not dispute their inability to perform the essential job duties of their position due to such disabling illness, injury, or condition.

2. The appointing authority may grant the employee's request for voluntary disability separation or may require the employee to submit to a medical or psychological examination conducted by one or more licensed practitioners selected by the appointing authority. If the examination supports the employee's request, the appointing authority will grant the employee's request for a voluntary disability separation. If the medical examination does not support the employee's request, the appointing authority will not approve the employee's request for voluntary disability separation.
3. An employee who is granted a voluntary disability separation will retain the right to be reinstated to their position for two (2) years from the date that the employee is no longer in active work status due to a disabling illness, injury, or condition.
4. Any employee who fails to apply for reinstatement, formally resign, or take disability retirement, shall be separated from service at the end of the two (2) year period from the last day worked.

C. Involuntary Disability Separation

1. If, after exhausting available leave, an employee refuses to request a voluntary disability separation, an Appointing Authority may place the employee on an involuntary disability separation if the Appointing Authority has substantial, credible medical evidence to indicate that the employee remains disabled and incapable of performing the essential job duties. Such involuntary disability separation may be done in accordance with Ohio Administrative Code (O.A.C.) Chapter 123:1-30-01. When an appointing authority has reason to believe that an employee is incapable of performing the essential functions of the employee's position due to disabling illness, injury, or condition, the appointing authority may require the employee to submit to a medical or psychological examination conducted by one or more licensed practitioners selected by the appointing authority. It is not, however, necessary for the appointing authority to require the employee to submit to such examination prior to involuntary disability separation if: (1) the employee is hospitalized at the time such action is to be taken, (2) the employee has exhausted any leave to which he is entitled under the FMLA, and (3) substantial credible medical evidence already exists that documents the employee's inability to perform the essential job duties.
2. When the appointing authority has received the results of a medical or psychological examination and initially determines that the employee is incapable of performing the essential functions of the employee's position due to a disabling illness, injury, or condition, the appointing authority will institute pre-separation proceedings. Under the proceedings, a hearing will be scheduled and advance written notice of at least seventy-two (72) hours will be provided to the employee. At the hearing, the employee will have a right to examine the appointing authority's evidence of disability, to rebut the evidence, and to present testimony and evidence on the employee's own behalf. The employee should also be permitted to waive their right to a hearing.

3. If the appointing authority determines, after weighing the testimony presented and the evidence admitted at the pre-separation hearing, that the employee is unable to perform the essential functions of their position, the appointing authority will issue an involuntary disability separation order.
 4. The effective date of separation, for the purpose of reinstatement, will be based on the date the employee was no longer in active work status due to the disabling illness, injury, or condition. The total continuous time of absence due to the disabling illness, injury, or condition will not exceed two (2) years for purposes of reinstatement rights.
 5. An employee who is involuntarily disability separated will have the right to appeal in writing to the State Personnel Board of Review within ten (10) days following the date the order is served on the employee.
 6. The appointing authority will also notify the employee, at the time the involuntary disability separation order is provided to the employee, of the required procedures to apply for reinstatement.
- D. Any appointment made to a position vacated by disability leave or separation will be on a temporary basis, ORC 124.30 (A)(2), and such employee must be made fully aware of their status. Should the employee returning from disability leave or separation be reinstated to another position, the temporary appointment may be made permanent.
- E. Disability leaves and separation for bargaining unit employees are governed by the applicable collective bargaining agreement.

Inclement Weather 6.10

- A. If a weather emergency is declared in Belmont County, the Appointing Official or designee will make a decision regarding closing the office. A weather emergency is where the county or city restricts travel except for emergency vehicles. In such an emergency, when the office is closed, non-essential employees normally scheduled to work will not be required to report to work and will receive pay for the employee's normal day.

Statewide, there are three (3) snow emergency levels that the County Sheriff can declare.

1. Level 1 Snow Emergency – County and township roads are hazardous with blowing and drifting snow. Roads are also icy and drivers should use caution.
2. Level II Snow Emergency – County and township roads are hazardous with blowing and drifting snow. Only those who feel it is necessary to drive should be out on the county and township roads. Listen to radio stations and/or contact employers to see if you should report to work.

3. Level III Snow Emergency – All county and township roads are closed to non-emergency personnel. No one should be out unless it is absolutely necessary to travel. All employees should listen to radio stations and/or contact employers to see if they should report to work. Those traveling on county and township roads may subject themselves to arrest.

The above snow emergency levels declared by a sheriff should not be confused with a “State of Emergency” which may be issued by elected officials of the affected jurisdiction (mayor, county commissioners, township trustees, etc.). A State of Emergency is generally not issued unless local resources are not adequate to handle the emergency or disaster and state assistance is needed. The office will automatically be closed to the public during a declared Level III Snow Emergency or when a State of Emergency is declared in Belmont County.

B. During a countywide emergency, employees shall comply with the following:

1. Employees and the general public may be advised not to leave the premises because of severe weather or other emergency conditions continuing after regular working hours. Remaining on the premises after hours will not entitle employees to overtime compensation or compensatory time unless they remain at work because they are required by department head direction to assist during the emergency situation. Situations such as this require supervisor approval.
2. An employee on sick leave or vacation status at a time of emergency closing will not be affected and will have their sick leave or vacation account charged accordingly.
3. Part-time employees who are scheduled to work will be treated in the same manner as full-time employees for purposes of this section. (Hours paid will not exceed the employee’s scheduled number of work hours.)
4. Certain designated employees of the Appointing Authorities may be considered essential employees under this section and are responsible for responding to emergency situations and snow/ice removal as directed.

C. Employees who are not able to report to work due to weather conditions when no weather emergency has been declared may, at their supervisor’s direction, make up the lost hours within the same workweek or use other available leave time not including sick leave.

D. Notwithstanding the provisions above, the Employer retains the right to close the department offices, or to remain open during periods of inclement weather or other emergency conditions, at their discretion and based upon operational needs and work load requirements. Employees required to work during emergency conditions shall not be entitled to any additional compensation.

Family Medical Leave Act (“FMLA”) 6.11

A. Statement of Policy

Eligible employees may request time off for family and/or medical leave of absence with job protection and no loss of accumulated service provided the employee meets the conditions outlined in this policy and returns to work in accordance with the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993.

B. Definitions

As used in this policy, the following terms and phrases shall be defined as follows:

1. “Family and/or medical leave of absence”: An approved absence available to eligible employees for up to twelve (12) weeks of unpaid leave per year under particular circumstances. Such leave may be taken only for the following qualifying events:
 - a. Upon the birth of an employee’s child and in order to care for the child.
 - b. Upon the placement of a child with an employee for adoption or foster care.
 - c. When an employee is needed to care for a family member who has a serious health condition.
 - d. When an employee is unable to perform the functions of their position because of the employee’s own serious health condition.
 - e. Qualifying service member leave.
2. Service Member Leave: The spouse, parent or child of a member of the U.S. military service is entitled to twelve (12) weeks of FMLA leave due to qualifying exigencies of the service member being on “covered active duty” or receiving a “call to covered active duty” In addition, a spouse, child, parent or next of kin (nearest blood relative) of a service member is entitled to up to twenty-six (26) weeks of leave within a “single twelve (12) month period” to care for a service member with a “serious injury or illness” sustained or aggravated while in the line of duty on active duty. The “single twelve (12) month period” for leave to care for a covered service member with a serious injury or illness begins on the first day the employee takes leave for this reason and ends twelve (12) months later, regardless of the twelve (12) month period established for other types of FMLA leave.
3. “Per year”: A rolling twelve (12) month period measured backward from the date an employee uses any leave under this policy. Each time an employee takes leave, the employer will compute the amount of leave the employee has taken under this policy, and subtract it from the twelve (12) weeks of available leave. The balance remaining is the amount the employee is entitled to take at the time of the request. For example, if an employee used four (4) weeks of FMLA leave beginning February 4, 2009, four (4) weeks beginning June

1, 2009, and four (4) weeks beginning December 1, 2009, the employee would not be entitled to any additional leave until February 4, 2010.

 - a. Inpatient care.
 - b. Any period of incapacity of more than three (3) consecutive calendar days that also involves:
 - i. Two (2) or more treatments by a health care provider, the first of which must occur within seven (7) days of the first day of incapacity and both visits must be completed within thirty (30) days; or
 - ii. Treatment by a health care provider on one occasion that results in a regimen of continuing treatment under the supervision of a health care provider.
 - c. Any period of incapacity due to pregnancy or for prenatal care.
 - d. A chronic serious health condition which requires at least two (2) “periodic” visits for treatment to a health care provider per year and continues over an extended period of time. The condition may be periodic rather than continuing.
 - e. Any period of incapacity which is permanent or long term and for which treatment may not be effective (i.e. terminal stages of a disease, Alzheimer’s disease, etc.).
 - f. Absence for restorative surgery after an accident/injury or for a condition that would likely result in an absence of more than three (3) days absent medical intervention. (i.e. chemotherapy, dialysis for kidney disease, etc.).
5. “Licensed health care provider”: A doctor of medicine, a doctor of osteopathy, podiatrists, dentists, optometrists, psychiatrists, clinical psychologists, and others as specified by law.
6. “Family member”: Spouse, child, parent or a person who stands “in loco parentis” to the employee.
7. “Covered Service Member”: Means either:
 - a. A current member of the Armed Forces, including a National Guard or Reserve Member, who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy, is in outpatient status, or is on the temporary disability retired list, for a serious injury or illness; or
 - b. A covered veteran who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy for a serious injury or illness and who was a member of the Armed Forces, including a National Guard or Reserves Member, at any time during the five (5) years preceding the date the eligible employee takes FMLA leave to care for the covered veteran.

8. “Outpatient Status”: The status of a member of the Armed Forces assigned to a military medical treatment facility as an outpatient or to a unit established for the purpose of providing command and control of members of the Armed Forces receiving outpatient medical care.
9. “Next Of Kin”: The term “next of kin” used with respect to a service member means the nearest blood relative of that individual.
10. A “serious injury or illness”, for purposes for the twenty-six (26) week military caregiver leave means either:
 - a. In the case of a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, means an injury or illness that was incurred by the covered service member in the line of duty on active duty in the Armed Forces or that existed before the beginning of the member's active duty and was aggravated by service in the line of duty on active duty in the Armed Forces, and that may render the member medically unfit to perform the duties of the member's office, grade, rank or rating; and,
 - b. In the case of a covered veteran, means an injury or illness that was incurred by the member in the line of duty on active duty in the Armed Forces (or existed before the beginning of the member's active duty and was aggravated by service in the line of duty on active duty in the Armed Forces) and manifested itself before or after the member became a veteran, and is:

- iv. an injury, including a psychological injury, on the basis of which the covered veteran has been enrolled in the Department of Veterans Affairs Program of Comprehensive Assistance for Family Caregivers.

 - b. In the case of a member of the Reserve components of the Armed Forces means duty during the deployment of the member with the Armed Forces to a foreign country under a Federal call or order to active duty in support of a contingency operation pursuant to specific sections of the U.S. Code, as outlined in 29 CFR § 825.126.
12. “Deployment to a foreign country” means deployment to areas outside of the United States, the District of Columbia, or any Territory or possession of the U.S., including international waters.
13. “Qualifying Exigency”: (For purposes of the twelve (12)-week qualifying exigency leave) includes any of the following:

This leave may be used for a period of fifteen (15) calendar days from the date the military member commences each instance of Rest and Recuperation leave.
- g. Attending certain post-deployment activities within ninety (90) days of the termination of the covered military member's duty, such as arrival ceremonies, reintegration briefings, and any other official ceremony or program sponsored by the military, as well as addressing issues arising from the death of a covered military member.
- h. Qualifying parental care for military member's biological, adoptive, step or foster father or mother, or any other individual who stood in loco parentis to the military member when the member was under eighteen (18) years of age, when the parent requires active assistance or supervision to provide daily self-care in three (3) or more of the activities of daily living, as described in 29 C.F.R. § 825.126, and the need arises out of the military member's covered active duty or call to covered active duty status.
- i. Any qualifying exigency which arose out of the covered military member's covered active duty or call to covered active duty status.

C. Leave Entitlement

To be eligible for leave under this policy, an employee must meet all of the following conditions:

- 1. Worked for the agency for at least twelve (12) non-consecutive months, or fifty-two (52) weeks.
- 2. Actually worked at least one thousand two hundred fifty (1,250) hours during the twelve (12) month period immediately prior to the date when the FMLA leave is scheduled to begin.
- 3. Work at a location where the Employer employs fifty (50) or more employees within a seventy-five (75) mile radius.
 - a. The entitlement to FMLA leave for the birth or placement for adoption or foster care expires at the end of the twelve (12) month period following such birth or placement.
 - b. Spouses who are both employed by the agency are jointly entitled to a combined leave total of twelve (12) weeks (rather than twelve (12) weeks each) for the birth of a child, upon the placement of a child with the employees for adoption or foster care, and for the care of certain family members with serious health conditions.

D. Use of Leave

The provisions of this policy shall apply to all family and medical leaves of absence as follows:

1. Generally: An employee is only entitled to take off a total of twelve (12) weeks of leave per year under the FMLA. As such, employees will be required to utilize their accumulated unused paid leave (sick, vacation, etc.) in conjunction with their accumulated unused unpaid Family Medical Leave. Employees will be required to use the type of accumulated paid leave that best fits the reason for taking leave and must comply with all procedures for requesting that type of leave as stated in the relevant policy. Any time off that may legally be counted against an employee's twelve (12) week FMLA entitlement will be counted against such time.
2. Birth of An Employee's Child: An employee who takes leave for the birth of their child must first use all available accrued paid sick and vacation leave, if applicable, prior to using unpaid leave for the remainder of the twelve (12) week period. However, if the employee requests leave for the employee's own serious health condition as a result of the pregnancy or postpartum recovery period, the employee will be required to exhaust all of their sick leave prior to using unpaid leave for the remainder of the twelve (12) week period. (Note: See section E below for information on disability leaves.)
3. Placement of a Child for Adoption or Foster Care: An employee who takes leave for the placement of a child for adoption or foster care must first use all available accrued paid vacation leave prior to using unpaid leave for the remainder of the twelve (12) week period.
4. Employee's Serious Health Condition or Family Member's Serious Health Condition: An employee who takes leave because of their serious health condition or the serious health condition of their family member must use all available accrued paid sick and vacation leave prior to using unpaid leave for the remainder of the twelve (12) week period.

E. FMLA and Disability/Workers' Compensation

An employee who is eligible for FMLA leave because of their own serious health condition may also be eligible for workers' compensation if the condition is the result of workplace accident or injury. Regardless of whether the employee is using worker's compensation benefits, the Employer may designate the absence as FMLA leave, and count it against the employee's twelve (12) week FMLA entitlement if the injury or illness constitutes a serious health condition under the FMLA. In addition, as these may be compensated absences, if the employee participates in the worker's compensation program, the employee is not eligible to use paid leave of any type (except as supplemental benefits, if applicable and requested by the employee), nor can the employer require them to do so, while the employee is receiving compensation from such a program.

F. Procedures for Requesting FMLA Leave

Requests for FMLA leave must be submitted in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to taking leave or as soon as practicable prior to the commencement of the leave. If the employee fails to provide thirty (30) days' notice for foreseeable leave with no reasonable excuse for the delay, the leave may be denied until at least thirty (30) days from the date the employer receives notice. The employee must follow the regular reporting procedures for each absence.

FMLA requests must be submitted on a standard leave form prescribed by the Employer. The Employer will determine whether the leave qualifies as FMLA leave, designate any leave that counts against the employee's twelve (12) week entitlement, and notify the employee that the leave has been so designated.

When an employee needs foreseeable FMLA leave, the employee shall make a reasonable effort to schedule the treatment so as not to unreasonably interfere with the Employer's operations.

G. Certification of Need for FMLA Leave for Serious Health Condition

An employee requesting FMLA leave due to their family member's serious health condition must provide a doctor's certification of the serious health condition, which must designate that the employee's presence is reasonably necessary. Such certification shall be submitted at the time FMLA leave is requested, or if the need for leave is not foreseeable, as soon as practicable. An employee requesting FMLA leave due to the birth or placement of a child must submit appropriate documentation at the time FMLA leave is requested.

The Employer, at its discretion, may require the employee to sign a release of information so that a representative other than the employee's immediate supervisor can contact the medical provider. If the medical certification is incomplete or insufficient, the employee will be notified of the deficiency and will have seven (7) calendar days to cure the deficiency.

The Employer may require a second medical opinion prior to granting FMLA leave. Such opinion shall be rendered by a health care provider designated or approved by the Employer. If a second medical opinion is requested, the cost of obtaining such opinion shall be paid for by the Employer. If the first and second opinions differ, the Employer, at its own expense, may require the binding opinion of a third health care provider approved jointly by the Employer and the employee. Failure or refusal of the employee to submit to or cooperate in obtaining either the second or third opinions, if requested, shall result in the denial of the FMLA leave request.

Employees who request and are granted FMLA leave due to serious health conditions may be required to provide the Employer periodic written reports assessing the continued qualification for FMLA leave. Further, the Employer may request additional reports if the circumstances described in the previous certification have changed significantly (duration or frequency of absences, the severity of the condition, complications, etc.), or if the employer receives information that casts doubt on the employee's stated reason for the absence. The employee must provide the requested additional reports to the Employer within fifteen (15) days.

H. Certification for Leave Taken Because of a Qualifying Exigency

The Employer may request that an employee provide a copy of the military member's active duty orders to support the request for qualifying exigency leave. Such certification for qualifying exigency leave must be supported by a certification containing the following information: statement or description of appropriate facts regarding the qualifying exigency for which leave is needed; approximate date on which the qualifying exigency commenced or will commence; beginning and end dates for leave to be taken for a single continuous period of time; an estimate of the frequency and duration of the qualifying exigency if leave is needed on a reduced scheduled basis or intermittently; appropriate contact information for the third party if the qualifying exigency requires meeting with a third party and a description of the meeting; and, if the qualifying exigency involves Rest and Recuperation leave, a copy of the military member's Rest and Recuperation orders, or other documentation issued by the military which indicates the military member has been granted Rest and Recuperation leave, and the dates of the military member's Rest and Recuperation leave.

I. Intermittent/Reduced Schedule Leave

When medically necessary, an employee may take FMLA leave on an intermittent or reduced work schedule basis for a serious health condition. An employee may not take leave on an intermittent or reduced schedule basis for either the birth of the employee's child or upon the placement of a child for adoption or foster care with the employee unless specifically authorized in writing by the Executive Director. Requests for intermittent or reduced schedule FMLA leave must be submitted in writing at least thirty (30) days prior to taking leave, or, as soon as practicable.

To be entitled to intermittent leave, the employee must, at the time such leave is requested, submit additional certification as prescribed by the Employer establishing the medical necessity for such leave. This shall be in addition to the documentation certifying the condition as FMLA qualifying. The additional certification shall include the dates and the duration of treatment, if any, the expected duration of the intermittent or reduced schedule leave, and a statement from the health care provider describing the facts supporting the medical necessity for taking FMLA leave on an intermittent or reduced schedule basis. In addition, an employee requesting foreseeable intermittent or reduced schedule FMLA leave may be required to meet with the Executive Assistant or designee to discuss the intermittent or reduced schedule leave.

An employee who requests and is granted FMLA leave on an intermittent or reduced schedule basis may be temporarily transferred to an available alternative position with equivalent class, pay, and benefits if the alternative position would better accommodate the intermittent or reduced schedule. An employee who requests intermittent or reduced schedule leave due to foreseeable medical treatment shall make a reasonable effort to schedule the treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the Employer's operations.

J. Employee Benefits

Except as provided below, while an employee is on FMLA leave, the Employer will continue to pay its portion of premiums for any life, medical, and dental insurance benefits under the same terms and conditions as if the employee had continued to work throughout the leave. The employee continues to be responsible for the payment of any contribution amounts he would have been required to pay had he not taken the leave, regardless of whether the employee is using paid or unpaid FMLA leave. Employee contributions are subject to any change in rates that occurs while the employee is on leave.

The Employer will not continue to pay the Employer portion of premiums for any life, medical, and dental insurance benefits if, while the employee is on FMLA leave, the employee fails to pay the employee's portion of such premiums or if the employee's payment for their portion of the premium is late by more than thirty (30) days. If the employee chooses not to continue health care coverage during FMLA leave, the employee will be entitled to reinstatement into the benefit plan upon return to work.

If the employee chooses not to return to work for reasons other than a continued serious health condition or circumstances beyond the employee's control, the Employer may seek reimbursement from the employee for any amounts paid by the Employer for insurance benefits the employee received through the Employer during any period of unpaid FMLA leave. Leave balances accrued by an employee prior to taking FMLA leave and not used by the employee as outlined in the section entitled "Use of Leave" will be retained by the employee.

FMLA leave, whether paid or unpaid, will not constitute a break in service. Upon the completion of unpaid FMLA leave and return to service, the employee will return to the same level of service credit as the employee held immediately prior to the commencement of FMLA leave. In addition, FMLA leave will be treated as continuous service for the purpose of calculating benefits which are based on length of service. However, specific leave times (i.e. sick, vacation, and personal leave and holidays) will not accrue during any period of unpaid FMLA leave.

K. Reinstatement

An employee on FMLA leave must give the Employer at least two (2) business days' notice of their intent to return to work, regardless of the employee's anticipated date of return. Employees who take leave under this policy will be reinstated to the same or a similar position upon return from leave except that if the position that the employee occupied prior to taking FMLA leave is not available, the employee will be placed in a position which entails substantially equivalent levels of skill, effort, responsibility, and authority and which carries equivalent status, pay, benefits, and other terms and conditions of employment as the position the employee occupied prior to taking FMLA leave. The determination as to whether a position is an "equivalent position" will be made by the Employer.

An employee will not be laid off as a result of exercising their right to FMLA leave. However, the Employer will not reinstate an employee who has taken FMLA leave if, as a result of a layoff within the agency, the employee would not otherwise be employed at the time reinstatement is requested. An employee on FMLA leave has no greater or lesser right to reinstatement or to other benefits and conditions of employment than if the employee had been continuously employed during their FMLA leave.

Prior to reinstatement, employees who take FMLA leave based on their own serious health condition shall provide certification from the employee's health care provider that the employee is able to perform the essential functions of their position, with or without reasonable accommodation.

L. Records

All records relative to FMLA leave will be maintained by the Employer as required by law. Any medical records accompanying FMLA leave requests will be kept separate from an employee's regular personnel file. To the extent permitted by law, medical records related to FMLA leave shall be kept confidential. Records and documents created for purposes of FMLA containing family medical history or genetic information as defined by the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008 (GINA) shall be maintained in accordance with the confidentiality requirements of Title

II of GINA, which permit such information to be disclosed consistent with the requirements of FMLA.

Paid Parental Leave 6.13

Paid parental leave provides up to six (6) continuous weeks of leave for full time, FMLA eligible employees. It is utilized in the event of birth or adoption of a child where the employee is a biological parent, or legal guardian, and the child resides with the employee. The benefit begins with an initial two (2) weeks (14 calendar days) of leave for which employees shall use their applicable accrued leave time or take unpaid if no appropriate leave is available, and is followed by four (4) weeks of leave at 70% of the employees' regular pay. Employees shall use any applicable accrued leave to supplement their pay, up to 100% during the last four (4) weeks of leave. Family Medical Leave will run concurrently as required.

Employees may elect to receive two thousand dollars ($2,000.00) for adoption expenses in lieu of receiving the leave benefit provided under this section. Attendance 7.1

- A. Regular and predictable attendance by all employees is an essential component of the employment relationship. Therefore, this policy is established in order to communicate the priority that the Employer places on regular and predictable attendance on the part of all employees. Attendance under this policy not only includes regular appearance at work, but also means honoring all regulations pertaining to breaks, lunch periods, meetings, etc.
- B. The normal work week for most full-time employees is computed on the basis of forty (40) hours, composed of five (5), eight (8) hour days or thirty-five (35) hours, composed of five (5) days, seven (7) hours. Schedules may be modified by the Appointing Authority.
- C. In order to maintain complete and accurate records of all time worked, employees are required to complete a Bi-Weekly Attendance Form, or if available, punch in and out on a time clock. Each employee will be responsible for making certain that they have properly recorded their daily arrival and departure times, as well as the time departed and returned from the lunch period. Any employee not properly adhering to this procedure may be subject to discipline. Under no circumstances will any employee punch or otherwise record another employee's time card or report.
- D. Supervisory and management staff are charged with the responsibility of ensuring that employees have accurately recorded arrivals and departures. Additionally, supervisors are responsible for submitting a bi-weekly payroll summary by noon on the Monday following the end of the payroll period. This summary should accurately reflect the number of hours actually worked, or taken in paid or unpaid leave during that period. The information on the payroll summary should be obtained by reviewing the Bi-Weekly Attendance Record or the time card which each employee is required to complete and submit to their supervisor. Because several of the County's operations are operated on a twenty-four (24) hour per day basis, it is understood that these Bi-Weekly Attendance Records may not be immediately available due to days off or other reasons. Employees shall in every instance be required to submit the attendance card and any request for leave (paid or unpaid) as soon as possible, and without fail prior to receiving a paycheck for the pay period. The original copies of these records, along with the Bi-Weekly Payroll Summary, will be maintained by the Employer in order to be available for auditing purposes.
- E. When authorized by their immediate supervisors (based on operational needs), employees may take not more than two (2) fifteen (15) minute rest periods each full workday. Rest periods shall be considered a privilege and not a right and shall never interfere with the proper performance of the work responsibilities of the department. Rest periods shall not abut the beginning of or the end of a shift, a lunch period, or another rest period.

- F. The Employer has no provision for make-up time. Whenever an employee is absent from work through no fault of the Employer, they will not be permitted to work overtime solely for the purpose of "restoring" the lost time.
- G. Employees are prohibited from engaging in work prior to or after established shift starting/quitting times without specific authorization from their supervisor. Further, lunch and break periods are to be taken in the prescribed areas and not in the employee's work location.
- H. If an employee, of their own accord, does not take their lunch break during the prescribed time allotted for such lunch break, it is not permissible for the employee to take the unused lunch break solely for the purposes of leaving work early and/or arriving at work late to avoid using any accumulated time such as vacation and/or sick leave. If a manager should approve a schedule other than the one established it will be done so based on operational need and established by the manager in advance.
- I. Absenteeism shall not be tolerated. Employees are expected to regularly and consistently report for work as scheduled. Employer approval of leaves as contained herein shall not render an employee immune from investigation.
- J. Employees will be disciplined for unauthorized leaves of absence. If an employee is unable to report to work as scheduled, they must follow the proper procedure for reporting off.
- K. The Employer recognizes the fact that emergency situations can arise that can cause an employee to be late or unable to report to work, e.g., car accidents, fire, etc., but these situations are the exception. In the case of an emergency, the employee should notify the supervisor as soon as possible and explain the nature of the emergency. Requests for emergency leave (authorization after the fact) will be considered based on the merits of the request.
- L. Excused Absence: An employee's absence will be excused only when it has been approved in advance, or it is approved after the fact once the Employer has determined it is a proper use of available leave. Any other absence will be considered an unexcused absence (unauthorized leave of absence) and will be disciplined accordingly.
- M. Patterned Abuse will not be tolerated and will result in appropriate discipline. Examples of patterned abuse are as follows:
1. absence on the day immediately prior to or immediately following the employee's scheduled holiday, vacation day, pay day, etc.;
 2. absence which recurs with regularity (e.g., every other Wednesday, every Monday, third Thursday of the month, etc.);
 3. absence when the employee is scheduled for special duty, including but not limited to overtime or temporary increases in work load.
- N. An employee who fails to report to work without any notification for three (3) or more consecutive scheduled work days shall be terminated, unless the employee can demonstrate, to the Employer's satisfaction, that there was sufficient justification for such no call/no show.

- O. Supervisory Responsibilities: Each supervisor should exemplify good attendance. It is the supervisor's responsibility to investigate abuse and bring it to the attention of the Appointing Authority or appropriate designee.

Original Adoption Date: 3/5/2008 Revision Date: 5/27/2020

Tardiness 7.2

- A. Tardiness or lateness on a regular basis is inexcusable and will not be tolerated. Tardiness is defined as any situation where an employee reports to work one (1) or more minutes after their scheduled starting time. Whenever an employee is tardy, that employee's time should reflect the actual start time to the nearest quarter (1/4) hour.
- B. An employee who is tardy may be subject to appropriate disciplinary action as follows, unless they offer to the supervisor a written reason for being tardy deemed acceptable by the supervisor:
- 2 times tardy – instruction and cautioning
 - 3 times tardy – written reprimand
 - 4 times tardy – 3 days or less suspension, or fine*
 - 5 times tardy – 15 days or less suspension, or fine*
 - 6 times tardy – termination from service
- *This may be a working suspension of record or a non-working suspension without pay.
- C. Each tardiness disciplinary action shall have force and effect for a period of eighteen (18) months after its issuance. (Whenever possible, the employee shall be required to call their supervisor to provide notification regarding an anticipated incident of tardiness. However calling in to report tardiness will not necessarily grant approval of the tardiness.)
- D. Instruction and Cautioning will be issued by the supervisor and a Record of Instruction and Cautioning will be given to the employee with a copy placed in the employee's personnel file. Written reprimands will be issued by the employee's supervisor and a Record of Written Reprimand will be given to the employee with a copy placed in the employee's personnel file.
- E. Suspensions, fines, and terminations related to tardiness and/or lateness will be recommended by the responsible management or supervisory authority, and will require official action of the Employer.

Original Adoption Date: 3/5/2008 Revision Date: 5/27/2020

Health and Safety 7.3

- A. Safety is the responsibility of both supervisory and non-supervisory employees. It is the responsibility of each to make certain that all safety equipment is being used and all safety procedures and practices are observed. Any employee found to be negligent in equipment operation, resulting either in damage to the equipment or an accident, shall be disciplined in accordance with the County's progressive discipline policy. The safe and efficient completion of work assignments, without injury, is the County's primary concern. Only through the determined elimination of the causes can we reduce the frequency of accidents. ORC section 4101.11.
- B. Any employee found to be reckless or negligent in equipment operation, resulting in the damage to the equipment or an accident, shall be subject to discipline up to and including termination.
- C. All employees, particularly supervisors, have the responsibility of reporting the existence of any hazardous conditions or practices. Supervisors found to be negligent in requiring the use of prescribed safety equipment or practices will be subject to disciplinary action.
- D. Any accident occurring during normal working hours shall be reported, in writing, to the immediate supervisor at once. The supervisor shall in turn notify the Employer or designee.
- E. Upon notification of an accident, the supervisor and employee shall complete an accident form which must be forwarded to the appointing authority no later than the end of the shift (or as soon as possible) in which the accident occurred in order to ensure that the employee may be covered under Workers' Compensation insurance.

Workplace Violence 7.4

Zero Tolerance

- A. The County is committed to providing a work environment that is safe, secure and free of harassment, threats, intimidation and violence. In furtherance of this commitment, the County enforces a zero tolerance policy for workplace violence. Consistent with this policy, threats or acts of physical violence, including intimidation, harassment, and/or coercion which involve or affect employees, or which occur on County property or at a worksite, will not be tolerated. Employees who are found to have committed acts of workplace violence will receive discipline and possible criminal prosecution, depending on the nature of the offense.
- B. The Employer prohibits the following:
 - 1. Any act or threat of violence by an employee against another person's life, health, well-being, or property;

2. Any act or threat of violence which could result in damage to County equipment or property;
 3. Any act or threat of violence, including, but not limited to, intimidation, harassment, or coercion;
 4. Any act or threat of violence which endangers the safety of employees, clients, residents, or the general public;
 5. Any act or threat of violence made directly or indirectly by words, gestures, or symbols; or
 6. Unauthorized possession/inappropriate use of a weapon on County premises or on a County controlled site, or an area that is associated with County employment except as required in the line of duty (i.e., law enforcement). A weapon is defined as a loaded or unloaded firearm or a device, electronic stun device, chemical substance, or other material that could be used, ordinarily would be used, or is intended to be used to cause serious bodily injury.
- C. Any person who makes substantial threats, exhibits threatening behavior, or engages in violent acts on County property shall be removed from the premises as quickly as safety permits and shall remain off the premises pending the outcome of an investigation. The Employer will initiate an appropriate response. This response may include, but is not limited to, suspension, and/or termination of any business relationship, reassignment of job duties, suspension, or termination of employment, and/or criminal prosecution of the person(s) involved.
- D. Employees shall immediately report to their supervisor any behavior that compromises the Employer's ability to maintain a safe work environment. All reports will be investigated immediately and kept confidential, except where there is a legitimate need to know. Even without an actual threat, personnel should also report any behavior they have witnessed which they regard as threatening or violent, when that behavior is job-related or might be carried out on a County-controlled site, or is connected with employment by the Employer.
- E. If situations arise where immediate assistance from the Sheriff's Office is required, the Sheriff (740-695-7933) may be called.
- F. All employees who apply for, obtain, or are the subject of a restraining order which lists County locations as being protected areas, must provide to the County a copy of the petition and declarations used to seek the order, a copy of any temporary protective or restraining order which is granted, and a copy of any protective or restraining order which is made permanent.

Warning Signs and Risk Factors

In all situations, if violence appears imminent, employees should take the precautions necessary to assure their own safety and the safety of others. An employee should immediately notify their supervisor or member of management if they witness any violent behavior.

Concealed Carry 7.5

- A. Consistent with the Ohio Revised Code, no employee, contractor, client or other individual may carry, possess, convey or attempt to convey a deadly weapon or ordnance onto property of the county. A valid concealed carry license does not authorize an individual to carry such a weapon onto these premises. Law enforcement officers specifically authorized to carry a firearm are exempted from this provision and may be permitted to carry a concealed weapon.
- B. County employees are prohibited from carrying firearms any time they are working for the county or acting within the course and scope of employment. These situations include but are not limited to attending training sessions or seminars, wearing a county identification badge, uniform, or other county issued paraphernalia that an employee is required to wear relative to their employment and working residents' homes or other sites off county premises. Except for law enforcement officers, no employee or member of the public may carry, transport, or store a concealed weapon, firearm or ammunition in a county owned vehicle.
- C. This policy does not prohibit employees, possessing a valid license to carry a concealed handgun, from transporting and/or storing a firearm or ammunition in their personal vehicle at work locations where their personal vehicle is otherwise permitted to be (e.g. county parking lot). However the employee must leave the firearm and ammunition in their personal vehicle. Employees are neither permitted to remove their firearm or ammunition from their personal vehicles while at work locations nor are they permitted to bring a concealed carry firearm or ammunition in a county owned building. The employee's firearm and ammunition must be stored in their personal vehicle in accordance with the storage provisions of the Concealed Carry statute. The firearm and ammunition must be in a locked vehicle either in the glove compartment, a lock box or the trunk.
- D. Employees shall immediately contact a supervisor if they suspect an employee or member of the public is carrying a concealed weapon, firearm, or ammunition on county premises. Employees are required to immediately contact a supervisor if they suspect an employee to be carrying a concealed weapon or firearm in violation of this policy at any time while they are working for the county, acting within the course and scope of employment, or acting as a representative of the county.

It is the responsibility of supervisors to see that they are properly used and maintained.

- A. Misuse, neglect, theft, and abuse of tools, supplies, equipment, personal computers, or telephones are prohibited. This method cannot be used if the fair market value in 2006 exceeded $15,000. (Revised annually). If selected, you must continue to use this method unless the vehicle no longer meets the requirements, except an employer may change to the commuting valuation rule.
2. Commuting Valuation Rule – Reg. §1.61-21(f): Value of personal use is $3.00 per day per person that commutes in the subject vehicle. The requirements are:
 - Employer has a written policy prohibiting personal use of the vehicle.
 - Employee does not use the vehicle for personal use.
 - The Employer must require the employee to use the vehicle. It cannot be voluntary on the employee's part.

 - This valuation method is not available for those whose compensation is at least as great as a federal government employee at Executive Level V. (2007-$13X0) Reg. §1.61-21(f)(6). This is $136,200 per year for 2007.
3. Automobile Lease Valuation Rule – Reg. §1.61-21(d): Value is determined as listed below:
 - a. Determine the Fair Market Value on the first day made available to the employee. The Employer's cost including tax, title, etc. may be used to determine FMV. §1.61-21(d)(5).
 - b. Compute the Annual Lease Value using the table in Pub. 15B or §1.61-21(d)(iii).
 - c. Multiply the annual Lease Value by the Percent of Personal Use from the logs.
 - d. Value fuel by multiplying $.055 per mile times the number of personal miles.
 - e. Add the values calculated in steps 3 and 4 to determine the taxable value. No adjustments need be made for maintenance or insurance costs.

Once computed, the Annual Lease Value remains in effect until December 31 of the 4th full calendar year after the rule was first applied.

A Daily Lease Method is required if the vehicle is available for less than thirty (30) days.

K. External Marking of County Vehicles: All County-owned vehicles shall bear the approved external markings:

1. County logo;

2. Vehicle number

All vehicles used by the Sheriff shall bear the approved Sheriff's, and/or law enforcement markings.

In accordance with R.C. 307.42, all County-owned or leased vehicles shall be plainly and conspicuously lettered as the property of the County.

In the event of employment termination, all uniforms and all uniform accessories (e.g. hats, belts, shoes) are to be returned to the elected official and/or department head.
 7. Should an employee fail to return the uniform, or any uniform accessories, either to be replaced or returned if leaving the employment of the County, the elected official and/or department head, at their discretion, may charge the employee up to the full replacement cost for each item which is not returned. If necessary, the elected official and/or department head may withhold such payment from the employee's pay check.
- C. Clothing provided to County employees may be considered taxable income to the employee. In order to comply with IRS guidelines, all employees provided uniforms will be provided an affidavit annually to cover the twelve (12) month period ending October 31 of each year. This affidavit must be completed by the employee, approved by the department head, and forwarded to the County Auditor by November 15 of each year for inclusion on the employee's W-2.

Additionally, the Board of County Commissioners may authorize a limited number of fund drives. Employees may be encouraged to participate, but such participation is entirely voluntary.

Computer/Internet/Electronic Mail Policy 7.15

The use of computer technology and assignment of an e-mail/Internet account through a Belmont County appointing authority's office is a benefit to the employee and should be treated as such. The following constitute proper use of these privileges. County computers and information systems are County property and may only be used for authorized purposes. Computer, Internet, and electronic mail usage may be monitored by system or other personnel at any time consistent with law.

Employees have no right to privacy with regard to the Internet and email on County systems. Authorized designees (as referenced above) may access any files stored on, accessed via, or deleted from computers and information systems consistent with law. When necessary, Internet, email, social media and Instant Messenger (IM) usage patterns may be examined for work-related purposes, including situations where there is a need to investigate possible misconduct and to assure that these resources are devoted to maintaining the highest levels of productivity. All software installed on any County computer must be licensed to the County. No County employee may install, uninstall, or reconfigure any software or hardware owned by the county without prior authorization from the County. The use of privately-owned or contractor-owned devices (i.e., PDAs, smart phones, and laptops) for official county business must be authorized in advance by the County.

Employees may be required to maintain passwords for their computers. Employees are responsible for safely securing their passwords. Absent supervisor approval, employees shall not share passwords. Employees may be required to periodically change passwords. Employees shall follow all IT Guidelines regarding passwords.

View or distribute offensive or harassing statements, or to disparage others based on race, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, age, disability, political, military status or religious beliefs. 4. Due to the fact the County encourages its employees to become familiar with new technology, the personal use of the Internet is permitted during non-work time. However, the employee's personal use of the Internet must follow these general standards for Internet use and may not result in any additional costs to the County.
5. Disruption of electronic services, supporting equipment, or information available on it is prohibited, including, but not limited to, tampering with hardware or software, vandalizing or destroying data, introducing or using computer viruses, attempting to gain access to restricted information or networks, violating copyright laws, or installing non-County-owned software of any kind.

NOTE: Whether on working time or not, these prohibitions apply at all times to county-owned computers and information systems. Personnel cannot expect that the information they convey, create, file, or store in County computers and information systems will be confidential or private regardless of the employee's intent.

B. E-mail

1. Any message sent or received via a Belmont County e-mail system may be monitored by the appointing authority at any time, with or without prior notification. If an appointing authority discovers any misconduct or criminal activity, the information contained in such e-mail messages may be used to document such conduct and may be revealed to the appropriate authorities. All e-mail usage shall comply with the appointing authority's policy and all state and federal laws including those barring discrimination because of age, race, color, sex, religion, disability, military status, etc.
2. E-mail relevant to the course of business in the appointing authority's office should be printed and filed in the same manner as written correspondence.
3. E-mail relevant to a specific case should be printed and filed, if appropriate.
4. E-mail accounts are to be used only by the authorized owner of the account or another person with the owner's specific authorization.
5. Subscriptions to unrelated services or news groups is not allowed as they create unnecessary traffic on the e-mail system.
6. It is permissible to transmit documents via e-mail as attachments. However, transmitting copyrighted material including software, research data, and manuscripts without the consent of the copyright holder is strictly prohibited.
7. Caution should be exercised before opening any attachment to any incoming e-mail. If the e-mail is of unknown origin, or is not business-related, the attachment should not be opened.
8. The use of personal e-mail is not forbidden, but should be used with common sense and restraint as is the telephone for personal business.
9. The downloading of files/programs for personal use from the Internet without advance permission is prohibited. Permission is obtained from the department head, appointing authority, or designee.

C. Standards of Conduct for E-mail on a Belmont County Electronic System

1. Do not overuse e-mail by sending courtesy copies of messages to people who do not need them. Similarly, it is not generally necessary to reply to an e-mail just to inform the sender that you have received it.
2. Be careful when forwarding e-mail messages. Use common sense: if you would not forward a copy of a paper memo with the same information, do not forward the e-mail.

3. Global transmission of e-mail is prohibited without the advance written permission of the appointing authority.
4. Be careful what you write. E-mail is not the same as conversation. It is a written record, can be duplicated at will, and may constitute a “public record.”
5. Use normal capitalization and punctuation. Typing a message in all caps is bad “netiquette.”
6. When replying to e-mail, it is often useful to include a portion of the original senders message to put your reply into context. It is appropriate to delete unimportant portions of the original message in order to prevent the message from getting too long.
7. If a user discovers defamatory, disparaging, or otherwise damaging statements about the County on the Internet, the user should inform the appropriate department head to follow-up on that discovery.

D. Use of the World Wide Web

The Internet is a powerful and useful tool for research and other functions. Employees are encouraged to develop computer and Internet skills to improve their job knowledge and to promote the interests of the appointing authority’s office. Employees should treat the Internet as a formal communications tool similar to the telephone, radio, video, and written communications. All employees are responsible for their actions and communications using computers and the Internet.

The County will permit personal use of the Internet with reasonable restrictions as to the amount of time devoted to personal usage and sites visited provided such use does not adversely affect business or productivity. Incidental/occasional use is comparable to time authorized for meals and reasonable breaks during the workday and those times only should be used to attend to personal matters. Personnel are not permitted to utilize the Internet for personal use equal to meal and break times and also take their scheduled meal and breaks. Agency Internet resources must be devoted to maintaining the highest degree of productivity. Personal Internet usage is a privilege, not a right. As such, the privilege may be revoked at any time and for any reason or for no reason. Employees are prohibited from engaging in personal use, including social media, while in active pay or otherwise on County time.

E. Securing Computer Equipment and Electronic Data

County employees who are responsible for or are assigned portable computer equipment, cell phones, and electronic media (i.e., laptops, flash memory devices, external hard drives, DVDs, CDs, etc.) shall secure those items when not in the office as these items may contain confidential and/or HIPAA information, which could be compromised if lost or stolen. If an employee loses a piece of equipment or it is stolen, they are required to immediately notify their supervisor. Failure to properly secure portable computer equipment, cell phone, and electronic data is subject to disciplinary action.

Employees accidentally sharing County information, or accessing an improper website, or opening an email with a virus are to immediately notify their supervisors. Employees who receive ransomware, or other malware/virus, are to immediately notify a supervisor. Employees shall not open emails, or click links, about which they have a concern.

Original Adoption Date: 3/5/2008 Revision Date: 5/27/2020

Nepotism 7.16

A. Hiring

The County will receive employment applications from relatives of current employees. However, the following four (4) situations shall prevent the County from hiring a relative of a current employee:

1. If one relative would have supervisory or disciplinary authority over another.
2. If one relative would audit the work of another.
3. If a conflict of interest exists between the relative and the employee or the relative and the County.
4. If the hiring of relatives could result in a conflict of interest.

B. Employment

An employee is not permitted to work in a position where their supervisor or anyone within their chain of command is a relative. If such a situation is created through promotion, transfer or marriage, one of the affected employees must be transferred or an accommodation acceptable to the County must be established. Termination of employment will be a last resort. If two employees marry, they will be subject to the same rules listed above as other relatives.

The provisions of O.R.C. §§ 102.03 and 2921.42 render it unlawful for a public official to use their influence to obtain a benefit, including a job for their relative. Any violation of these statutes may result in criminal prosecution and/or disciplinary action. For purposes of the Article, the term “relative” shall include: spouse, children, grandchildren, parents, grandparents, siblings, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, daughter-in-law, son-in-law, father-in-law, mother-in-law, step-parents, step-children, step-siblings, and a legal guardian or other person who stands in the place of a parent to the employee.

Self Help to Records Prohibited 7.18

A. Self Help to Records Prohibited

- 1. Employees may not copy or remove any record, with the exception of an approved written request for the employee's own medical records as defined under R.C. 4113.23, or an approved request for the employee's own payroll records as defined under R.C. 4111.14(G) or writing for personal use or for the personal use of another employee, even those regarded as "public records," without first obtaining advanced written permission from their supervisor, or without going through the process for obtaining public records outlined above.
- 2. Except as otherwise provided by law, no employee shall tape record any meeting, hearing, or appeal involving the Employer or a representative of the Employer without the advanced written permission of the Appointing Authority. Such recording may become a public record, subject to the County Records Retention Schedule. As such recording may be a public record, it should be provided to the County Human Resources Director.
- 3. Any employee who is discovered to have violated any of the above enumerated policies will be subject to discipline, up to and including removal consistent with the County's Discipline Policy. Any former employee who is discovered to have obtained an unauthorized tape recording will be barred from reemployment by the Employer and may be subject to civil or criminal penalties.

Social Media Policy 7.19

A. Purpose: The purpose behind this policy is to make an employee aware of their privacy rights and prohibited conduct with respect to an employee's actions and its impact on the employer when using social media sites on and off duty. This policy is also intended to ensure efficient use of employee time and to minimize any distraction from an employee's assigned tasks and duties. It will allow the employer to ensure that employer rules are followed and all employees are treated fair and consistent.

Employees shall remember they are paid by public funds and the public holds them to a high standard of professionalism. The employer has an overriding interest and expectation in deciding what is "spoken" on behalf of the employer. This policy is not meant to infringe on one's right to free speech, rights under R.C. 4117, or any other protected activity.

B. Scope: All employees, volunteers, interns or other acting on behalf of Belmont County, will be subject to and held accountable for any conduct outlined in Social Media Policy. This policy works in conjunction with other related personnel policies and procedures (e.g., harassment).

C. Social Media refers to the use of websites such as, but not limited to, Facebook, Myspace, Twitter, Flickr, LinkedIn. For purposes of this policy, Blogs and other internet forums shall also be covered. Nothing in this policy is meant to prohibit access to any social media website or Blog which may be work-related.

D. Policy

1. On Duty Conduct: Accessing social media sites for non-work purposes is strictly prohibited. While at work, an employee may only access social media websites, Blogs and/or other internet forums of communication during their lunch, breaks or other non-working time. This includes access from a personal device during an employee's compensated hours of work.

2. On and Off Duty Conduct: Employees are reminded to be careful of the information they disclose on the internet, including social media sites. The following uses of social media are strictly prohibited, whether on or off duty:

- a) Comments or displays about coworkers, supervisors or the County that are vulgar, obscene, threatening, intimidating, harassing, or a violation of the County's workplace policies against discrimination, harassment or hostility on account of age, race, religion, sex, ethnicity, nationality, disability, military status or other protected class, status, or characteristic.
- b) Statements or uses of the County's logo which are slanderous or detrimental, including evidence of the misuse of the County's authority, information, insignia or equipment.
- c) Unprofessional communication which, if left unaddressed, could potentially result in a civil or criminal cause of action against the County. Unprofessional communication also includes that which the County could demonstrate has a substantial risk of negatively affecting the County's reputation, mission or operations, such as slander, defamation or other legal cause of action.
- d) Disclosure of confidential and/or proprietary information acquired in the course of employment. Confidential information includes not only information that would not be available pursuant to a public records request, but also includes any information which does not relate to an issue of public concern.
- e) Comments or displays which impact employees' abilities to perform their job duties or the County's ability to maintain an efficient workplace.
- f) Employees are encouraged to follow the internal complaint procedure and not take to the internet to voice work-related complaints.
- g) Employees found to have violated any part of this policy may be subject to discipline up to and including termination.
- h) Any questions regarding the policy should be directed to the employee's immediate supervisor.

Social media sites may be inspected by the County for cause to determine potential policy violations. If an employee believes that an online communication violates a County policy, the employee should immediately report the communication to their supervisor. The County may investigate the matter, determine whether such communication violates policy, and take appropriate action. This policy does not apply to communications protected by the U.S. or Ohio Constitutions.

Original Adoption Date: 12/22/2015 Revision Date: 5/27/2020

Section 8 Discipline, Grievances

- 8.1 Discipline
- 8.2 Complaint Procedure

Discipline 8.1

The appointing authority believes that a clearly written discipline policy will serve to promote fairness and equality in the workplace, and will minimize potential misunderstandings among employees in disciplinary matters.

Employer has adopted this discipline policy as a guideline for the administration of discipline. It is not, however, to be construed as a delegation of, or a limitation upon, the Employer's right to impose a different level of discipline, when circumstances warrant.

The County has the right to investigate all alleged disciplinary violations. Employees are required to cooperate fully during investigations. Employees who are the subject of a formal investigation have the right to be accompanied, represented, and advised by an attorney. For all employees, the failure to respond, to respond truthfully, or to otherwise cooperate in an investigation, shall be considered insubordination and may result in termination. Employees involved in an investigation shall not discuss the facts of the investigation during the pendency of the investigation. Investigations shall be conducted upon receipt of an allegation of potential misconduct. Investigations shall be conducted promptly and in a reasonable and efficient manner from the moment the employer becomes aware, to determine whether the alleged misconduct occurred.

Classified employees may be placed on “administrative” leave of absence pending an investigation. The county will follow the Ohio Revised Code, section 124.388 “Administrative Leave with or without pay”. Unclassified employees may be placed on paid or unpaid leave pending an investigation.

Employees who have completed their probationary period and who are in the classified civil services may only be disciplined for just cause. Disciplinary action will be commensurate with the offense. Discipline for minor infractions will normally be imposed in a progressive manner with consideration given to the nature of the offense, prior disciplinary action, length of service, the employee’s position, the employee’s record of performance and conduct along with all other relevant considerations. Nothing in the policy shall be construed to limit the County’s discretion to impose a higher level of discipline under appropriate circumstances.

The following forms of misconduct constitute grounds for disciplinary action: incompetency, inefficiency, dishonesty, drunkenness, immoral conduct, insubordination, discourteous treatment of the public, neglect of duty, policy or work rule violations, conviction of a crime, failure of good behavior including a violation of ethics of public employment, failure to maintain licensing requirements, and any other acts of misfeasance, malfeasance, nonfeasance or any other reason set forth in O.R.C. § 124.34.

The property and image of the County is to be respected at all times; as such, an employee’s off duty conduct that has a nexus to the workplace or could reasonably negatively impact the County may form the basis for discipline. Any comments or questions concerning the standard of conduct expected should be directed toward the employee's immediate supervisor.

Employees have an obligation to immediately inform the County of any on-duty or off-duty arrests or convictions. An arrest or conviction may, or may not, result in discipline depending on the nature of the incident, the job performed, and other relevant considerations. Employees will not be granted vacation leave in order to serve jail time.

The filing or prosecution of criminal charges or other civil administrative investigations against an employee for alleged misconduct or criminal activity shall not be determinative as to appropriate disciplinary action, if any, under this policy. The County may investigate the employee's alleged misconduct or activities and determine the appropriate discipline, if any, without regard to pending administrative or criminal charges. The disposition of such administrative or charge is independent of a disciplinary investigation. Although the County may utilize information obtained during other investigations, the County's decision to take appropriate disciplinary action may or may not correspond with the filing, or non-filing, of criminal charges or civil actions. A felony conviction while employed with the County is just cause for termination.

Staff is responsible for reporting any incident or conduct they believe is inappropriate and/or in violation of County Policies and Procedures whether the conduct occurs on-duty or off-duty. This duty includes incidents actually observed, reported by residents, reported by staff, or suspected due to other facts.

When the County believes that discipline of a classified employee in the form of a paid or unpaid suspension, reduction or elimination of longevity pay, demotion or termination, or loss of pay or benefits is possible, a pre-disciplinary conference shall be scheduled. Not less than twenty-four (24) hours prior to the scheduled starting time of the conference, the employee will be provided with written notice of the charges against them. At the pre-disciplinary conference, the employee may respond to the charges, verbally or in writing, or have their chosen representative respond. The employee may also waive the Pre-Disciplinary conference. Failure to attend the pre-disciplinary conference shall be deemed a waiver of the conference.

Unclassified employees and probationary employees are not eligible for a Pre-Disciplinary Conference.

The purpose of disciplinary action is to encourage corrected performance or behavior, except where the employee is removed.

The Employer may place an employee on administrative leave with pay, but only in circumstances where the health or safety of an employee or of any person or property entrusted to the employee's care could be adversely affected. Complaints regarding unlawful discrimination or harassment should be brought according to the unlawful discrimination and harassment policy contained in this manual.

All employees shall have the right to file a complaint without fear of retaliation. No employee shall be disciplined, harassed or treated unfairly in any manner as a result of filing a complaint. A complaint is defined as a disagreement between an employee and County as to the interpretation or application of official policies, departmental rules and regulations, or other disagreements perceived to be unfair or inequitable relating to treatment or other conditions of employment. The following is the procedure to be followed when an employee has a complaint as defined above:

A. Step 1: Immediate Supervisor

The employee's Immediate Supervisor will review the complaint and attempt to resolve the complaint within a reasonable time and will provide the employee with a written response. Step 1 may be bypassed by either the employee or Immediate Supervisor if the Immediate Supervisor lacks the authority to make a change and/or the Immediate Supervisor is the subject of the complaint.

B. Step 2: Department Head

Where the employee is not satisfied with Step 1 response of the Immediate Supervisor, the employee may submit the original complaint to the Department Head. The Department Head will review all material provided and provide the employee with a written response in a timely manner.

C. Step 3: Employer (Commissioners or Designee)

Where the employee is not satisfied with the Step 2 response, the employee may submit the original complaint to the Commissioners or Designee. The Commissioners or Designee will review all material provided and will provide the employee with a written response in a timely manner. The Step 3 response shall be final.
